

Barefoot And Crazy

Jack Ingram

The clouds are partin, The summer sun's startin to burn down on that river
My baby's waitin, I got the chevy shakin
I'm blazin a trail to get her, there she is

She's got her shades on and man she's lookin strong Mine all mine for the weekend
The cooler's loaded down, We're headed outta town
Jumpin off the deep end

We're goin barefoot and crazy
Me and my baby
Back flip off the flip right bridge double dog dare me and i will meet me at the bottom with a cool wet kiss

She's rockin that bikini top
My hearts skippin like a rock across that water
Don't ever wanna stop
Goin barefoot and crazy

The sun is droppin, We got the fire poppin
And it's lightin up her blue eyes
With a little bit of luck It'll heat things up &
We'll be lovin in the moonlight

Break out my old guitar, Sing fishin in the dark Baby get ready
We'll take a little sip We'll take a little dip
And sleep in the bed of my Chevy

Goin barefoot and crazy, Me and my baby
Just me & her & the man in the moon
Drinkin on a cold bud brew
Mornins gonna come way too soon

We'll wake up and Do it all again
Wishin it would never end
Anybody asks where we've been Tell em Barefoot and crazy

Barefoot and crazy, Me and my baby
I did a back flip off the flip right bridge
Double dog dared me and I did
Met me at the bottom with a cool wet kiss

She's rockin that bikini top
My hearts skippin like a rock across that water
Don't ever wanna stop

Goin barefoot and crazy
Don't ever wanna stop, Don't ever wanna stop
Goin barefoot and crazy
