

Hey You

Jack Ingram

Don't you ever get tired of the noise?
Don't you ever get bored with the crowd?
If they have so much to say
Would they have to talk so loud
Why don't we get out of here
'Cause I want to whisper in your ear

Hey you
Are you listening to me?
I gotta tell you what you mean to me
You're the one I want to tell my secrets to
Hey you

There's some things that I need to say
There's some things we've gotta talk about
I've gotta have your full attention
'Cause I don't wanna have to shout
Even though you're right here near me
Well I wonder if you ever hear me

Hey you
Are you listening to me?
I gotta tell you what you mean to me
You're the one I want to tell my secrets to
Hey you, hey you, hey you

Everybody's just dyin' to be heard
Everybody they wanna know why
Everybody's gotta have the last word
And it's always gotta be goodbye
Why don't we get out of here
'Cause I want to whisper in your ear

Hey you
Are you listening to me?
I gotta tell you what you mean to me
You're the one I want to tell my secrets to

Hey you
Are you listening to me?
I gotta tell you what you mean to me
You're the one I want to tell my secrets to
Hey you, hey you, hey you
