

Then Was Then And Now Is Now

Jack Jones

Then was then
And now is now
Don't look back
You can't look back somehow
Sweet was sweet
But not so bitter now
Then was then
And now is now
You forgive
And I will too
Let's forget
Unhappy times we knew
We'll come out
All shiny, bright and new
Then was then
And now is now
Now, now we can win
No matter what might have been
Now we can begin again
For then was then
And now is now

Now, now we can win
No matter what might have been
Now we can begin again
For then was then
And now is now
