

(Broken, yeah)

Yeah, heartbroken, misspoken
Why I thought that you was chosen?
I will never know this
I'm smokin' this potent
Tryna get my mind back
I've been at my lowest
Broken, misspoken
Why I thought that you was chosen?
I will never know this
I'm smokin' this potent
Tryna get my mind back
I've been at my lowest

I need a minute
Think I need a break, I just hit my limit
While you been away don't know what I was missin'
Say it's not my business, give me tunnel vision
I was never trippin', you want me to fall down
Keep those secrets hidden, won't you give it up now?
Say it's all forbidden, who am I to trust now?
Wanna say good riddance, running out of luck now
You would be surprised that I don't give a fuck now
I used to think that we could make it work somehow
And I'm irrational, I'm running out of luck now
I'm tired of these games, I just want to give up now

So why you tryna hit me up now?
It's been a brick since we talked now
I heard you found yourself a man now
So I don't understand your plan, how-
Do you expect for this to work out?
You gettin' old, you should grow up now
Yeah, so I don't get why you are mad now
Oh, you dug your hole and you want out now

Heartbroken, misspoken
Why I thought that you was chosen?
I will never know this
I'm smokin' this potent
Tryna get my mind back
I've been at my lowest
Broken, misspoken
Why I thought that you was chosen?
I will never know this
I been smokin' this potent
Tryna get my mind back
I've been at my lowest

(I've been at my lowest)
