

SIDEWAYS

Jack Kays

Drink till I'm sideways
I don't love shit, never get my way
Crashed in a ditch on the edge of the highway
Never go to work but I'm out on a Friday
Liquor on my shirt
Drink till I'm sideways

Drink till I'm sideways

Fucked up, no I never knew how to just Shut up, if I drink too much I might
Throw up, now I'm falling apart in the bathroom
And I don't want anything if I don't get to
Have you, I don't wanna end up like the last dude
Strung out on the floor 'cause he couldn't get past you
Always wanting more but it never could last you
Don't know what it's for

Drink till I'm sideways
I don't love shit, never get my way
Crashed in a ditch on the edge of the highway
Never go to work but I'm out on a Friday
Liquor on my shirt
Drink till I'm sideways

Drink till I'm sideways

I'm at the point of just giving up
I can't keep going, I've had enough
I try to control myself but I need it
Tell you I'm done with you and never really mean it
Then I go and get stuck in between it
All of the headaches and all of the reasons
Why I'm a head case I'm always uneven
Nothing really works

Drink till I'm sideways
I don't love shit, never get my way
Crashed in a ditch on the edge of the highway
Never go to work but I'm out on a Friday
Liquor on my shirt
Drink till I'm sideways

Drink till I'm sideways
