Loaded Gun

Jack Peñate

I want the world to know my name
So I survive
And there is nothing in my way
Except my cruel mind

So you want much more from life?
But you haven't got the time?
Still you tell 'em you're the one
As you point your loaded gun

I want the diamonds and the seas

For free, for me
I need a spaceship to escape (escape, escape, escape)
I'm so high, I'm divine

So you want much more from life?
But you haven't got the time?
Still you tell 'em you're the one
As you point your loaded gun

I want the world to know my name
