Murder

Jack Peñate

Murder in the den

To everyone
To everyone I've wounded
Sorry for what
I'm sorry for what I've done
To those who left me stranded
To those who left me stranded
I receive with open arms
I receive with open arms
I used to know
I used to know the answer
Before the question
Before the question was asked
That put me to pieces
That put me to pieces
And with the shards I made a
And with the shards I made a mask

Hold back, I can't go on [x4]

Murder in the dance
Blood on your sleeve
Tears sharper than a knife
Stop I can't breathe
Turn on your lights
You're too blind to see
Don't wanna see signs
Set yourself free
Bang, bang

Murder in the den
Murder in my sleep
Bang, bang

I heard the gods
I heard the gods were angry
For forgetting
For forgetting where I'm from
Tried to find my way back
Tried to find my way back
But the trail of crumbs had gone
But the trail of crumbs had gone
So I walk
I walk a new direction
I close my eyes
Close my eyes and made a wish
Hoping to get closer
Hoping to get closer
To redemption's sweetest
To redemption's sweetest kiss

Hold back, I can't go on [x4]

Murder in the dance

Stop I can't breathe
Turn on your lights

Trying to sell your love
They're gonna tear you up
And then they start to break you down
(Bang, bang) [x4]

Murder in the dance
Stop I can't breathe
Turn on your lights
Set yourself free [x2]

Oh, with forgiveness
(Oh with forgiveness)
For you know not what you've done
(For you know not what you've done)
Oh, with forgiveness
(Oh, with forgiveness)
Don't turn your back and run
(Don't turn your back and run)
