

Dream Girl

Jack River

Is there time to her beat
And does she make it sound so sweet
I lie awake at night thinking about your dream girl
I lie awake at night thinking about your dream girl

What colour dresses does she wear
Does she mind that there are tear
Does she make castles on the beach
And does she take her dreams to sleep

Does she laugh and does she cry
Does she think its alright
Is there time to her beat
And does she make it sound so sweet

I lie awake at night thinking about your dream girl
I lie awake at night thinking about your dream girl
In another place

In another time
You could have been mine

I would have stopped and followed you
Into the blue light
You found her
Its okay
I'm talking about your dream girl
You found her
Its okay
I'm talking about your dream girl
Does she laugh
Does she cry
Does she think that its alright
Is there time to her beat
Does she make it sound so sweet
Pixies fairies women tall
Do you even know it all
Pretty figure soft soft skin
I'm thinking about you dream girl
I lie awake at night thinking about your dream girl
I lie awake at night thinking about your dream girl
