

Her Smile

Jack River

Her smile pierces through the universe
Back through everything you've ever heard
In time or out of time, she doesn't mind
As long as she gets there

Let go, let go
Baby, I know
Let go, let go

Little woman, little girl
In the rain when I was twelve, oh
Little woman in a haze
Little fairies dancing through a maze

Let go, let go
Baby, I know
Let go, let go
Let go, let go
Baby, I know
Let go, let go

Surrender me to Surrender me
Surrender me to
All the things that make me feel this way

Let go, let go
Baby, I know
Let go, let go
Let go, let go
Baby, I know
Let go, let go

And you're going somewhere I don't know
Somewhere closer, baby, I know
You're going somewhere I don't know
Somewhere closer, baby, I know
You're going somewhere I can't go
Somewhere closer, I know

Her smile pierces through the universe
Back through everything you've ever heard
In time or out of time, she doesn't mind
As long as she gets there
As long as she gets there
