

In Infinity

Jack River

Oh, I feel it coming on
Feel it rolling 'round my bends
The fire in my mind
All that rain that falls from my eyes
Oh, Lord, when I feel it coming on Won't you send me a friend?
The dreamer in me wonders
If it will go out with the night
But the hope within me vanishes
When I start to think that I'm alright
My uncle said "Get a job, Holly
Oh, c'mon, dreams are free"
I thought, old man, where's your heart gone?
I bet you lost it in a dream
But when you lose all of your desire
You lose all of your fear
And when you lose your fear
You're stranded on a boat that can go anywhere

But it's lonely in infinity
Have you ever thought of that, my dear?
I am lonely in infinity
Did you think of that on your way here?
So won't you join me in infinity?
Oh, won't you come, come travel here?

Or did you leave it in a dream
Like I thought you might have?
Did you leave it in a dream
Like I could have?
Don't leave it in a dream
Make it happen slowly
Don't leave it in a dream tonight
Don't leave it in a dream
Make it happen slowly
Don't leave it in a dream tonight

Don't leave it in a dream
Don't leave it in a dream