

Paradise

Jack River

I've got a ticket and I wanna take the ride
Laying in the gutter, she's got stars in her eyes
Take me to my hometown, everything will slow down
Running from the bad weather, is that all we know now?

All is well in paradise, I just cannot realise
All is well in paradise, I just can't open my eyes

I've got a ticket and I wanna take the ride
Laying in the gutter, she's got stars in her eyes
Take me to my hometown, everything will slow down
Running from the bad weather
Is that all we know now?

She's got her kids and her songs, but she's stuck inside her job
Working late at night with the feeling like
Everything will slow down, take care of its own now
Nothing ever turns out, haven't you learned now?

All is well in paradise, I just cannot realise
All is well in paradise, I just can't open my eyes

I've got a ticket and I wanna take the ride
Laying in the gutter, she's got stars in her eyes
Take me to my hometown, everything will slow down
Running from the bad weather
Is that all we know now?

Weather, come on and stand in the weather
Come on and stand in the weather, come on and stand in the weather
Is that all you want, is that all you've got?
Don't wanna stand in the weather
Don't wanna stand in the weather
Come on and stand in the weather

I've got a ticket and I wanna take the ride
Laying in the gutter, she's got stars in her eyes
Take me to my hometown, everything will slow down
Running from the bad weather
Is that all we know now?

Come on and stand in the weather
Come on and stand in the weather
Come on and stand in the weather
Come on and stand in the weather
