

Crazy Fool

Jack Savoretti

I'm just a man flesh and bones
Feeling guilty feels like home
When I'm homeless you're my shelter
When I'm worthless you make me better

Why do you love me the way you do?
Why do you love me you crazy fool?

You're just a girl with green green eyes
You see right through me and my disguise
Go ahead and leave me, you say never
I say how long, you say forever

Why do you love me the way you do?
Why do you love me you crazy fool?

And always leave the light on
So I can find my way back to you
When I get it all wrong
Telling you lies hiding the truth

Why do you love me the way you do?
Why do you love me you crazy fool?

I'm just a man, flesh and bones
Having you here feels like home
