

Cry Cry Cry

Jack Scott

Afraid to walk down the street, afraid you might pass me by
And I don't want my friends, my friends to see me cry
Cause I said we were through, I said we were through
But now I cry, cry, cry over you

Afraid to go out tonight, afraid I'll be caught in the pale moonlight
A vision of you will then appear and I'll sit down and cry my dear
Cause I said we were through, I said we were through
But still, I cry, cry, cry over you

Maybe someday fate will change, perhaps re-arrange

Bring the love that used to be, along with you back to me
Then I won't cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry
But until that day oh I shall cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry
over you

Well I saw you last night walking hand in hand, how my tears did flow
Then I had to run, run and hide I don't want no one to know
That I cried over you, cried over you, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry
Oh, I cried over you, cried over you cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry, cry
over you
