

Inchman

Jack Stauber

(It's never been worse)
(That's not true)

I'm up and racin'
Like a foreign entity
If you let them embrace it
It's a clockwork energy!

Inchman, Inchman
Why'd you say so long?
(Oh, oh what the hell did I do?)
Hits me, hurts me, wants me hurting wrong
Discuss, discuss, never mercy

Well I'm up in your Days Inn
I'll be taking what I need
I looked out when you're welcome, embrace it
(Aw, what?!)
Where's my apology? No mercy!

Inchman, Inchman
Why'd you say so long?
(Oh, oh what the hell did I do?)
Hits me, hurts me, wants me hurting wrong
Discuss, discuss, never mercy

Though the Inchman goes, everybody knows
Your heart is sleeping in the morning and a-break it down to wake it
Though Inchman goes, everybody knows
Your hearts pressed into clay and a-break it down to bake it
Although the Inchman goes, everybody knows
Your heart is sleeping in the morning and a-break it down to wake it
Though Inchman goes, everybody knows
Your hearts pressed into clay and a-break it down to bake it

Well, you're washing your hair like you know that you should
The second wind wants to make it feel good
You gotta be lifting up flowers and saving your power
To the next big thing, don't swing at me
You better believe I'll be singin' gravy, gravy, crazy, just swingin'
Well, he hurts me, hurts me, wants me plus and swingin'
Discuss, discuss, never mercy!

Inchman, Inchman
Why'd you say so long?
(Oh, oh what the hell did I do?)
Hits me, hurts me, wants me hurting wrong
Discuss, discuss, never mercy
Inchman, Inchman
Why'd you say so long?
(Oh, oh what the hell did I do?)
Hits me, hurts me, wants me hurting wrong
Discuss, discuss, never mercy

(Stay here)
(Why'd you stay?)
(Stay here)

(Closely, trudging)
