

Is Anyone There?

Jack Stauber

Short of breath, everything's down
Spin once, take an hour and see where you are now
Time is up, lucky you, sink in my chair
Bend once, take an hour and ask "is anyone there?"

Look up from your work, is anyone there?
Look up from your hurt, is anyone there?
Look up from your girl, is anyone there?
Look up from your world and ask "is anyone there?"
