

Mirror Man

Jack Stauber

They turn me down, now I live my nightmare
Gotta be seen by someone out there
Now I sit here in reflection chamber
Fixing myself so that all can savor

Follow me, I'm on the brink of visual epiphany
Life a costume away
Oh, life's a wardrobe change

So I can shift
Create a rift
With beauty and with grin
Blush sensation
Creates a foundation
God is in my skin

They turn me down, now I live my nightmare
Gotta be seen by someone out there
Now I sit here in reflection chamber
Crafting the world, it's next new savior
