

Fighting The Nights

Jack Wagner

I've gotten over you
I don't believe in happy endings anymore
I never think of you
'Cause I don't wanna keep pretending
I'm a survivor
But I can't deny that I'm

Fighting the nights again
Why try to replace you
Fighting but I can't win
When I'm dreaming
I keep feeling you

By my side
Oh, I'm fighting the nights

I make it through the day
And never even once do I wonder where you are
I tell myself I got it made
I don't give into the strain I'm under
I wouldn't listen
When you said I would miss you but I'm

Fighting the nights again
Why try to replace you
Fighting but I can't win
When I'm dreaming
I keep feeling you

What I didn't say
It echoes in my brain
But darlin', fight it
You can't win

Fighting the nights again
Why try to replace you
Fighting but I can't win
When I'm dreaming
I keep feeling you

Fighting the nights again
Why try to replace you
Fighting but I can't win (no)
When I'm dreaming
Then you're with me
