

Sneak Attack

Jack Wagner

I thought I was so much smarter
Walking away
I got my own Pearl Harbor
It's always the same

Just when I think I'm happy
Somebody asks me
What about what's her name?

Sneak attack!
Doesn't matter where I'm at
Memories are like a trap
Part of me just won't believe...
It hits me like a
Sneak attack!
Suddenly I want you back
Comes so quick I can't react
Part of me just won't believe
That you and I are through

Tune in the old blue station
Out for a spin
I hear a dedication
About to begin
My heart'll become a crater
If I listen long
They're gonna play your favorite song

Here it comes (emergency!)
All at once (I'm a casualty)
I'm surrounded
I surrender!

Sneak attack!
Doesn't matter where I'm at
Memories are like a trap
Part of me just won't believe...
It hits me like a
Sneak attack!
Suddenly I want you back
Comes so quick I can't react
Part of me just won't believe
It hits me like a
Sneak attack!
Doesn't matter where I'm at
Memories are like a trap
Part of me just won't believe...
