

With Your Eyes

Jack Wagner

Oh oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh, oh oh

I see you again, and I have to catch my breath
A friend of a friend, I have to know you
I'm falling into something that scares me half to death
Then you look at me, and I only see what I'm looking into

You see through the night with your eyes
Look into my life with your eyes
You take my whole body by surprise with your eyes
With your eyes

I see you again, and you smile as if you know
Everything's planned, but no one told me
I'm falling in, and where you are is where I'll go
But I'm running blind, and I've got to find
What you want to show me

You see through the night with your eyes
Look into my life with your eyes
You take my whole body by surprise with your eyes
With your eyes
You laugh at goodnight with your eyes
Look into my life with your eyes
You take my whole body by surprise with your eyes
With your eyes

Is it so easy to see through me?
Yeah
Oh oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh, oh oh
Yeah

You laugh at goodnight with your eyes
Look into my life with your eyes
You take my whole body by surprise with your eyes
With your eyes
You laugh at goodnight with your eyes
Look into my life with your eyes
You take my whole body by surprise
You see through the night with your eyes
Look in my life with your eyes
Ooh yeah

You laugh at goodnight with your eyes
Look in my life with your eyes
