

Pablo Picasso

Jack White

Yeah, some guys try to pick up girls and
They get called assholes
This never happened to Pablo Picasso
He could walk down the street, and girls could not resist his s tare, and that's why
Pablo Picasso was never called an asshole

Yeah, the girls' faces turned the color of the avocado
When he rolled down their street in his El Dorado
You know they could not even try to Resist his stare, and that's why
Pablo Picasso never got called an asshole

Yeah, some people walk down the street
They get called assholes
This never happened to your mom or Pablo Picasso
He could walk down the street, and girls could not resist his s tare, and that's why...

Woo!

He was fine with nothing and never got called an asshole
He didn't have a camera
Yeah!
Yeah!
He was fine with something and never got called an asshole
The girls could not resist, resist his stare

He would drop down the street in his Coupe de Ville
And think of all the things that you don't wanna let spill out of your brain, out of your mind
And that is what I'm trying to tell you it's
Pablo Picasso was never called an asshole
