

Memory

Jackie Boyz

[Jackie Boyz:]

I wanted to call the other day,
To see if you're still might think of me,
Cause my life ain't been the same
Since we went our separate ways, yeah, yeah, yeah!
But still inside I need you,
You're like my breath I breathe you,
Wish you were right here with me now!

Chorus:

So how do you know when it's time to let go?
And throw away everything that you we're fighting for.
How do you deal with a something so real
And give up on what was meant to be,
Now we're just another memory!
Just another just another memory!
Just another just another memory!

[Christina Milian:]

Now I'm hearing everything you say,
And it'd be a lie if I didnt feel the same way,
Your voice it keeps on calling me,
And if I could, I would bring back yesterday!
Cause still inside I need you,
You're like the air I breath you,
Wish you were right here with me now!

[Jackie Boyz &Christina Milian:]

Chorus:

So how do you know when it's time to let go?
And throw away everything what you we're fighting for.
How do you deal with a something so real
And give up on what was meant to be,
Now we're just another memory?
Just another just another memory!
Just another just another memory!

Come back to me! (5x)

Come back !

Come back to me! (3x)

Come back !

[Christina Milian:]

Chorus:

So how do you know when it's time to let go?
And throw away everything what you we're fighting for.
How do you deal with a love that's so real
And give up on what was meant to be,
Now we're just another memory
