

Now That I'm Here

Jackie Boyz

Is it me,
The one you been searching for all your life
Could it be,
The other dudes running games on the side

And everytime you think about it you cry
And girl I can't take it
I never put up with so many guys
There's no mistake here
I'm your getaway
Make your great escape
Girl I am the one you belong to

And now that I'm here
You should see clearly now
Ain't nobody gonna take you from me
And now that I'm here
You should see clearly now
I'm going to love you until you can see
That I am here (no more dark clouds)
Girl I am here, yeah

He didn't trust you
What kind of man would lock you down and then take the key
Baby that just ain't me
No more of you being ignored
Sick tonight and I assure you
And I guarantee you'll feel brand new baby

And everytime you think about it you cry
And girl I can't take it
I never put up with so many guys
There's no mistake here
I'm your getaway
Make your great escape
Girl I am the one you belong to

And now that I'm here
You should see clearly now
Ain't nobody gonna take you from me
And now that I'm here
You should see clearly now
I'm going to love you until you can see
That I am here (no more dark clouds)
Girl I am here, yeah

He left you astray
With nowhere to go
Girl come on in drop your bags cause you're home
I am your future
Let him be your past
You'll never have to wander

And now that I'm here

You should see clearly now
I'm going to love you until you can see
That I am here (no more dark clouds)
Girl I am here, yeah

Yea yea, Oh yea, Say Yea
And now that I'm here baby
Oh cause now I am here
You can see clearly now
Ooh ooh woah yea
