

Are We Dancing?

Jackie DeShannon

Are we dancing?
Are we really here?
Is this feeling something real or will it disappear?

Are we dancing?
Does the music soar?
Was this lovely song I hear ever heard before?

Are your eyes confessing things
I alone can see
Or is my imagination flying away with me?

Are we dancing?
Say we really are
Then I'll know that I
Reached into the sky
I reached into the sky
And touched a star

Then I'll know that I
Reached into the sky
I reached into the sky
And touched a star
