

Big Hello

Jackie DeShannon

Well, it's the number to call if you want my lovin'
The number to call if you want turtledovin'
The number I'm waitin' all night long
Just waitin' and waitin' for you to phone

Big hello, big oh, oh

What's the matter? What's the matter? Why don't you call?
Don't you love me, pretty baby, no more at all?
Sittin' here waitin' not doin' a thing
Just waitin' for the doggone phone to ring

Big hello, big oh, oh

Well, baby, dial my number
You said you would phone
I'm so broken-hearted
Please don't wait too long

Well, I'm sorry, pretty baby, that we had a fight
And you left me the other night
And if the phone don't ring in a minute or two
Think, pretty baby, I'll have to call you

Big Hello, big oh, oh
(All righty now)

(Oh, yeah
No messin')

Well, it's the number to call if you want my lovin'
The number to call if you want turtledovin'
The number I'm waitin' all night long
Just waitin' and waitin' for you to phone

Big Hello, big oh, oh

What's the matter? What's the matter? Why don't you call?
