

Hello Broken Heart

Jackie DeShannon

(Our next song we have never done on the show. It's a Sonny James tune called "Hello Broken Heart".)

Hello, old broken heart
I see you're back once more
Hurtin' the same way
As you did before

Listen, old broken heart
I've got some news for you
Achin' won't help things
And tears just won't do

I promised myself that
I'd see you no more
But you have me cryin'
As you did before

Look here, old broken heart
I've got some news for you
Just because he has gone
Don't come cryin' to me

I promised myself that
I'd see you no more
But you have me cryin'
Like you did before

Look here, old broken heart
Go away and let me be
Just because he has gone
Don't come cryin' to me

(Oh, thank you)
