

I Don't Need You Anymore

Jackie DeShannon

We, we traveled a long, long way.

Then suddenly it went astray.

It's time to turn and walk a - way.

It seems to me that you've forgotten what we had

And all it used to be.

And I don't see you anymore

When blue skies don't make our day,

What can you do? What can you say?

It's time to stop and walk away.

So I'll be smart, I'll leave the memories in the hall

Before they reach my heart.

And I won't need you anymore

(Instrumental line)

An empty room we used to share,

I look for you but you're not there.

So I'll be strong, I'll probably linger at the door

But not for very long

And I don't need you anymore

Except I don't think that's really true.
