Open fields of grace

Jackie Evancho

Last night I saw you running in the open fields of grace no longer were you broken or in pain the wind blew kisses through your hair you laughed with beauty unaware I wish I could be there with you in the open fields of grace in the open fields of grace

Last night I heard you singing in the open fields of grace no longer were you silent or afraid your voice was innocent and strong as you proclaimed love's ancient song oh teach me how to sing along with you
in the open fields of grace

When tears are but a memory we'll run to God like children finally free in the open fields of grace in the open fields of grace dancing in God's delight as night fades away

Last night I saw you running in the open fields of grace someday I'll be running there with you
