

Hearts

Jackie Wilson

Ohhh hearts, always break when someone's untrue
Hearts, never know the right thing to do
And hearts, make mistakes like most people do
When they try to reach the sky above

Ohhh hearts, can't be fooled, they know the real thing
Hearts, may be ruled when love is the king
And hearts, will be cool whenever they cling
To the memories of a budding love

I put my heart in your keeping
Thinking it safe all the while
And now I can't stop, stop from weeping
And since I'm wondering why

Ohhh hearts, may forgive but never forget
Hearts, only live to live and regret
And my heart tells me that I love you
And yet can't we find a way to bind our hearts

My heart, tells me that I love you
And yet can't we find a way to bind our hearts