

Greenbroke

Jackson Dean

Ever since I can remember
All I wanted was to be my own man
Find out what it means to live forever
Draw my own damn line in the sand
I'd kick myself if I didn't kick down one more wall
Leavin' home at eighteen, never to look back at all
Just a wild child lookin' for a wilder blue

'Cause I'm greenbroke, greenbroke
Out there runnin' with the free folk
Wanderin' out in the dark
Breakin' the limits of my heart
Greenbroke, greenbroke
Just poundin' earth in a cloud of smoke
Runnin' with the moon in the dead of night
Writin' my story in the sands of time
Just send my spirit to the star glow
'Cause the best I'll ever be is greenbroke

Ain't no barbed-wire fence sharp enough to fence me in
If I stay anywhere, it's just 'til my stay wears thin
I got feet to take me where I wanna go
Somewheres I ain't been to somewheres I know
Just ridin' the wind wherever it blows

'Cause I'm greenbroke, greenbroke
Out there runnin' with the free folk
Wanderin' out in the dark
Breakin' the limits of my heart
Greenbroke, greenbroke
Poundin' earth in a cloud of smoke
Runnin' with the moon in the dead of night
Writin' my story in the sands of time
Just send my spirit to the star glow
'Cause the best I'll ever be is greenbroke

Hey, yeah
Oh woah, woah

'Cause I'm greenbroke, greenbroke
Out there runnin' with the free folk
Wanderin' out in the dark
Breakin' the limits of my heart
Greenbroke, greenbroke
Poundin' earth in a cloud of smoke
Runnin' with the moon in the dead of night
Just writin' my story in the sands of time
Just send my spirit to the star glow
'Cause the best I'll ever be is greenbroke
