

Heavens To Betsy

Jackson Dean

Heavens to Betsy
I don't know if you can hear me
But up here you're coming clear as a bell
Heavens to Betsy
I finally quit the drinking
'Cause I hate that my demons put you through hell

And I bet you're just as surprised as I am
They'd ever let a sinner like me in
And I know I didn't do
Enough watching over you
But I will until I see you again
If you'll let me

Now heavens to Betsy
Blink twice if you remember
Just skipping rocks on the river
Weren't knee high to a stump
And they still haunt me
Your pink rain boots in the driveway
What kind of man would drive away
Just give up and run

And I bet you're just as surprised as I am
They'd ever let a sinner like me in
And I know I didn't do
Enough watching over you
But I will until I see you again
If you'll let me
Now heavens to Betsy

And I bet you're just as surprised as I am
They'd ever let a sinner like me in
And I know I didn't do
Enough watching over you
But I will until I see you again
If you'll let me
