

Red Light

Jackson Dean

Off and on, stop and start
Goodbye, hello, pull us back together
And pull us back apart
Here and gone, sun shinin' in the dark
Slammin' brakes, lead foot all the way down
On my heart

Just like a broken record
Turnin' on a dime

Red light, green light
Off again, on again
Sure as the sun's gonna rise
The only thing that stays the same
As sure as her eyes are blue
Her mind's gonna change
No in between, no kinda maybe
No sure thing, but askin' myself why
It's all red light, green light
It's hello, goodbye

Too fast, ain't fast enough
Slow it down for the rush
Hit a bump, catch some air
Right off the track
Make it last just to sneak back out the back
Do it, think you're gonna get some more
Gone in a flash

Red light, green light
Off again, on again
Sure as the sun's gonna rise
The only thing that stays the same
As sure as her eyes are blue
Her mind's gonna change
No in between, no kinda maybe
No sure thing, but askin' myself why
It's all red light, green light
It's hello, goodbye

It's all red light, green light
Blue eyes
All you can do is hold on tight
(One, two, three, four)

Red light, green light
Off again, on again
Sure as the sun's gonna rise
The only thing that stays the same
As sure as her eyes are blue
Her mind's gonna change
No in between, no kinda maybe
No sure thing, but askin' myself why
It's all red light, green light
It's hello, goodbye
