Life is great
Just gotta be a dick sometimes
You only live once
Just gotta be a dick sometimes
Life is great
Just gotta be a dick sometimes
You only live once
Just gotta be a dick sometimes

For me
One for the love
Second to the trust
Three to the principle and that is us
Ay
You call them facts but they don't line up
Taste like Cohiba without a clean puff

Done this, done that for love as a favor
It's never enough 'cause they got used to the flavor
The puzzle came with many layers too many players
When shit goes down they still want you to be their savior

Became the pick and roll for them to get away
Fancy moves with the fade away, uh
They reaching when the ref looks away
Gotta keep myself in check, am I okay?

I still believe in trust over a thousand lies
But fuck your coin with yeses on both sides
Insane
When they still blame me 'cause I slide
I guess that's when we gotta be a dick sometimes

Life is great
Just gotta be a dick sometimes
You only live once
Just gotta be a dick sometimes
Life is great
Just gotta be a dick sometimes
You only live once
Just gotta be a dick sometimes

Celebrate this time for me
Celebrate this time
Celebrate this time for me
Celebrate this time

Life is great when peace comes to your heart
A ride to find a place for your soul to park
But now it's hard the game got no room for art
Watch the line 'cause the players can't tell black and white apart
Spent time for talks, hope the shit would blend
I even tried to change myself to another man
Mm
Things never land according to plan
Devils never want to understand

Life is great
Just gotta be a dick sometimes
You only live once
Just gotta be a dick sometimes
Life is great
Just gotta be a dick sometimes
You only live once
Just gotta be a

Laaaaa, la laaaa
Laaa laaaaaa
Laa laaaa
Laaaaa, la laaaa
Laaa laaaaaa
Laa laaaa

Just gotta be a dick sometimes
