

Hate to Love

Jackson Wang

Wish I could still trust you, trust you

Why do you hate to love me?
Cause all along I thought you were blood
Made it too comfortable
You were blinded by the greed in your heart

And now I know what you are
Call me fam but you pretended
It's funny how people can be selfish

I give it all, give it all, give it all
But you still want more

Ooo
Wish I could still trust you, trust you
But you fucked it up
Could've been so simple
And don't you get me wrong
Wish I could still trust you, trust you
But you don't belong
People don't love to hate
They just hate to love

Don't get me going
I still believe in trust
But you and me's a bust
You left me fearful
And you think what's the fuss
It's just a couple bucks
But you just cut and run after an earful

Shoulda said deuces, deuces
What's the resolution
You said you would
Give it all, give it all, give it all
And you still want more

Oooo
Wish I could still trust you, trust you
But you fucked it up
Could've been so simple
And don't you get me wrong
Wish I could still trust you, trust you
But you don't belong
People don't love to hate
They just hate to love

Hate to love
Why do you hate to love?
Why do you hate to love?
Why do you hate to love?

Why do you hate to love?
