

One Time

Jackson Wang

In this dark world we live in, is there still love?
Should I still believe in trust when the people I love and the moment we experienced were all lies?
I found out I was never family to them
It's hard to believe the moments we spent were fake, when it fe lt so real

I thought I could change someone
By giving all I have to them
Welcoming and accepting them in every way

Maybe I'm wrong
But I still believe in trust
And I still believe in love

Gotta be one time
Gotta be one time
Gotta be one time
Gotta be one time
Gotta be one time
Gotta be one time
Gotta be one time
Gotta be one time
