

Poison

Jackson Wang

I keep drinking your poison
And I don't know why
I don't know why

I know you see me fallin'
No, I don't know why
I don't know why

I been stalking you all night
I know you've got him in your sight
But I don't care
Cause I'm still drinking all alone
It's so hard to sit and look
While my girl is getting took
I guess it's bye for the night
Cause

I keep drinking your poison
And I don't know why
I don't know why
I know you see me fallin'
No, I don't know why
I don't know why

I might not be Mr. Right
I play back the whole damn night
It ain't fair
You left me drinking all alone
I don't care how odd this looks
Cause I'm still misunderstood
I'll be fine for the night
Cause

I keep drinking your poison
And I don't know why
I don't know why
I know you see me fallin'
No, I don't know why
I don't know why

Take me back when the bottle was full
It made me look like a fool, yea
Take me back when the bottle was full, yea
I should've just stood up baby
But I been introverted lately
You sending texts but acting crazy
While it could be all amazing so intoxicating

I keep drinking your poison
And I don't know why
I don't know why
I know you see me fallin'
No, I don't know why
