

Pretty Please

Jackson Wang

Don't hate me, give love a chance
Don't need your heart, just need your hands
Knew from the start that this won't end
Don't you tease me baby, please

Pretty, please, pretty, please
Pretty, please, pretty, please
Pretty, please, pretty, please
Pretty, please, pretty, please
Don't you tease me baby, please

I'm gon' touch if you let me
Give me love if you have it
No more talk, let me have it
Swear now I'm ready
Had enough I admit lookin' so camera ready
Got me feelin' some type of way
'Cause your body is so wavy

This feels too good to let it go, ay
But I can't let you lock the door
Don't hate me, give love a chance
Don't need your heart, just need your hands
Knew from the start that this won't end

Don't you tease me baby, please
(Don't need your heart, just need your hands
Don't need your heart, just need your hands
Don't need your heart, just need your hands)
Don't you tease me baby, please
(Don't need your heart, just need your hands
Don't need your heart, just need your hands
Don't need your heart, just need your hands)
Don't you tease me baby, please

Don't hate me, give love a chance
Don't need your heart, just need your hands
Knew from the start that this won't end
Don't you tease me baby, please
