

Mama said boy stay clear of the water
When you're blue and still catching fire
And I've learnt from my father
To listen to my mother
So I'm cooling waiting by the shore

Replaying all my memories from Georgia
Passing time to fill the void
Edging closer to the water
But I'm further than I wanna
Still cooling waiting by the shore

Oh oh

Pretending I'm away in California
Leaving my shadow in the dust
It's like running from altar
To the arms of another
So I'm cooling waiting by the shore

Mama said boy stay clear of the water
When you're blue and still catching fire
And I've learnt from my father
To listen to my mother
So I'm cooling waiting by the shore

Still cooling waiting by the shore
Still cooling waiting by the shore
Cooling like my mama's boy
