Monster 2.0

Jacob Banks

They made a monster out of me
They put a shot in my back
They did me to the count of three
They set the hounds on my tracks
They made a demon out of me
Then they put a cross through my flesh
They put a search out for me
'Cause I got some blood on my hands

But they would see me when I'm coming
I'll be laughing, while you're running (Oh)
Oh, you won't see me when I'm coming
I'll be that monster you've been wanting, oh no
I'll be that monster you've been wanting, oh no

They made a story out of me
They laugh and joke about my name
They put a bounty out on me
They're all excited by my shame

But they would see me when I'm coming
I'll be laughing, while you're running (Oh)
Oh, you won't see me when I'm coming
I'll be that monster you've been wanting, oh no
I'll be that monster you've been wanting, oh no
I'll be that monster you've been wanting

You build me up, you break me down
You said you're sure, you let me drown
You hid my crown, you burnt my bridge
You let me down, you never 'round (uh)
Let's substract all the fake, I don't need no additions
Like go with the sides, all them times I done said they can't fuck with the vision
Still dropping gems, I need rings for my hand
Ain't no weak link in the chain of command
Glance from the sand and my niggas ain't swam
See, they jumped ship, still ain't never found land, oh man
That's why I don't wanna try no more
I don't wanna lie no more
Can't hurt you to hurt, when I'm turnt, it's the birth of a person
I don't recognise no more, oh no

But they would see me when I'm coming
I'll be laughing, while you're running (Oh)
Oh, you won't see me when I'm coming
I'll be that monster you've been wanting, oh no

I'll be that monster you've been wanting
I'll be that monster you've been wanting
I'll be that monster you've been wanting, oh no
I'll be that monster you've been wanting
