

Parachute

Jacob Banks

To tell the truth
I'm no hero
I spend my days running and keeping my receipts
Oh you've heard the news
They found my equal
Another day another jump, Geronimo

My parachute won't open
My parachute won't open
My parachute won't save my anymore
My parachute won't open
My parachute won't open
My parachute is teaching me to fall

When you take my lingo
My inhibition come crashing through the door
So I chase the blues
To fight my ego
Another day another jump, Geronimo

But my parachute won't open
My parachute won't open
My parachute won't save my anymore
My parachute won't open
Oh, My parachute won't open
My parachute is teaching me to fall

Oh, my parachute won't open
My parachute won't open
My parachute is taking me to God

And I'll crash into the ocean
And drown in these emotions
My parachute is teaching me to fall
