Took a walk somewhere
Through the fog
To the roaring sea
I could almost see you there
Standing right in front of me
And I know what it feels like
To be somebody, oh-ah whoa whoa
Yeah, I know what it feels like
Eh-yeah
To let somebody go
I know

Took a walk somewhere
Through the fire
To the roaring sea
I thought I'd always need you there
Now you're gone
You're just a memory, yeah
And I know what it feels like
To be somebody, oh ah whoa whoa
Now I know what it feels like
Yeah, to let somebody go
I know
I know

Bring me back to life
I feel that ocean of love
The waves come crashing down, ah
Love's a constellation
Let me take you to the sky
Inside my heart
Where the shadows fall
And the world goes 'round
See storm rise up
And it all falls down
Without you

Let me be angry
Let me be patient
Let me happy
Let me ordinary
Ordinary

Hola, te puedo en algo?
Oh, yeah, I was actually, um
I was wondering
Do you guys have any
Time?
I just gotta live my life
I don't wanna just get by Why?
I don't wanna waste my time
That's no way to die
That's no way to die
