

A Rock Somewhere

Jacob Collier

I'm on a rock somewhere
It's the only one I know
And I know it well
And somehow I know you're there
And I'm waiting on the world

I'm ringing the old church bell
I've forgotten how it goes, but it feels like hell
I guess you're in heaven now
And you're never coming home

'Cause even when I'm wide awake, I know
That you've been having other dreams, for sure
If nothing's ever going to change at all
I'll be waiting on the world

Go

Conditional words, I swear
See the people come and go
And they go so well
They're counting the coins back there
It's the only thing they know

And even when you're down and out I know
That you've been up in higher ground, for sure
If nothing is ever going to change at all
I'll be waiting on the world
Only waiting on the world, go

I'm on a rock somewhere
And I've been looking at my phone
Baby I'm not scared
I guess I'm alone, my friend
You left me waiting on the world
I'll be waiting on the world
