I been wandering far away from home
Way from home, way from home [?]
Where I been going, I'll never know
Never know, never know
The sky up above make the river flow
River flow, river flow [?]
More I think about it the less I know
Less I know, less I know

May your love
Shine through the deepest, darkest moment
May your smile
Bring light to my deepest, darkest ocean
May your love
Shine through the deepest, darkest moment
May your smile
Bring my heart everlasting motion

The rain rolls up and the sky fall down
I was lost to the world but now I'm found
We gonna keep on singing, I know
And we will never be, never be alone
The sun rise up and the moon falls down
We were lost to the world but now we're found

And if we keep on singing, I know
That we could keep this motion rolling on and on, on, on, on
