

Hideaway

Jacob Collier

Take me anywhere you want to go
You know that my love is strong in my hideaway
Softly like the calm that follows storm
Find what I've been searching for, all along in my hideaway

Even when I close my eyes darling
I will always stay wide awake in my hideaway

Touch me
Like I've never loved before
In a place that I adore
In my hideaway
I know
Whichever way the wind may blow
There will be a place for me to go
In my hideaway
Whether you be lost or found
Darling, if you've gone astray
I'm on my way
To my hideaway
My hideaway

Down going down
Down falling down
Down goin down
Follow down

When the rain falls
Falling down to the sea
Flow that river
To the depth of me

Let me
Feel the sky and feel the moon
Let me sing an honest tune
To my hideaway
Trusting
Wherever I go wandering
I'll find a home in everything
In my hideaway
Maybe you can come to stay
And I will meet you here someday
Far away
In my hideaway
