

Summer Rain

Jacob Collier

Two heartbeats on the floor
Candle-lighting
Angels at my door
No silver lining
I don't masquerade inside the flame
But I miss you like summer rain

Shadows on the wall
Border-lining
I thought they'd never fall
Worlds colliding
I don't catch a wave, my summer rain
I can't breathe without you
I won't walk away, I feel the pain
But I can't bleed without you

I get by without you
I get high, but I miss you like summer rain

Kiss me to my core, paralyzing
Hold me where I'm sore, never minding
I don't know your name or feel your shame
But I miss you like summer rain

Don't love you anymore
I'm providing
You held me down before
Never asking
Why I'm so afraid to walk your way
I'm so free without you
I won't catch the rain
Won't feel the same
I'm alive without you

I get by without you
I'm so high, but I miss you like summer rain

And every night
I feel so tired
But I can't sleep
Without you near
I close my eyes
I wish you were here

But I get by
I get by
So high
But I miss you like summer rain
