Chillin Wit You

Jacob Latimore

All out of patience, all out of time
I just can't take it, waiting just for you and I
Feel the vibrations, holding you true
It feels like heaven when I'm chillin' with you

Chillin' with you
That's always a move
You're never lonely when I'm there

You're another homie
You're a one and only
You're a Chinese dream
But you're not Chinese

Won't tell the world about your assets
Won't tell the world about your assets
They can't imagine
I ain't fishing for no thottie
This is more than a hobby
I want more than your body

All out of patience, all out of time
I just can't take it, waiting just for you and I
Feel the vibrations, holding you true
It feels like heaven when I'm chillin' with you

Chillin' with you
That's always a move
You're never lonely when I'm there

Tell me where do I begin
I just want to see it to the end
(I just want to see it to the end)
And whatever that's real
That's the only thing that we is

Won't tell the world about your assets
Won't tell the world about your assets
They can't imagine
I ain't fishing for no thottie
This is more than a hobby
I want more than your body

All out of patience, all out of time
I just can't take it, waiting just for you and I
Feel the vibrations, holding you true
It feels like heaven when I'm chillin' with you

Chillin' with you
That's always a move
You're never lonely when I'm there
