

Heartbreak Made Me

Jacob Latimore

Yo

I think it's fair that I let you know I'm now fully healed
And I'm not sayin' I'm not ready to be in a relationship but
But in some regard I was hurt and heartbreak kinda made me this way
And I hope you can understand

We're lovers just one and the same
Yeah, we both in the same boat
We take it slow this time for real
Can't let your heart hurt no more

I'm so tired of playing the games
How many days do we not speak?
I'm done being somebody
If I ain't being me
And that's to say the least

You know that this may take a while
I won't be ready for a while
You know that this may take a while
Love ain't the same
And I just might be afraid

It's the things we've been through
That affects me and you
And stops me from loving you
How you need

It should be a concern
Commitment you deserve
But it can't be
Heartbreak made me

Don't point a finger, no reason to blame
Don't nobody wanna let go
We take it slow this time for real, for real
And we end up in the same boat

Tired of finding my place in the game
It's overrun with the same things
I'm done being somebody
If I ain't being me
And that's to say the least

You know this may take a while
I won't be ready for a while, a while
Love ain't the same
And I just might be afraid

It's the things we've been through
That affects me and you
And stops me from loving you
How you need

It should be a concern
Commitment you deserve
But it can't be

Heartbreak made me
