

Take It Back

Jacob Latimore

What? Why? Yeah
You feel like this why you say it like that
You saying that shit to make me mad

You feeling like this why you say it like that
You saying that shit to make me mad
Do you really mean it
Tell me what you mean
Woah oh, woah oh oh
Woah oh, woah oh oh
You saying that shit to make me mad
When you get it wrong we take it back

You always saying wild shit
You scream, I sit in silence
I can hear you hardly, If we being honest
I know you used to violence
What about the nigga you was texting on your phone
Are you for the streets or can we really make a home?
You be talking talking talking I just leave you where you stand
Why it gotta go like this baby for you to understand

You feeling like this why you say it like that
You saying that shit to make me mad
Do you really mean it
Tell me what you mean
Woah oh, woah oh oh
Woah oh, woah oh oh
You saying that shit to make me mad
When you get it wrong we take it back

Tell you ain't no girl that's on my phone
Every time it ring you swear that's what's going on Talking bout my mama almost blew it for you baby
Now you rather get rollies you say roses overrated
Sometimes, you can't just say the first thing that comes to your mind
You need to think before you speak you chase one time
I just be putting up with your shit
I just keep lovin you through this shit
I just keep fucking you through this shit, yeah

You feeling like this why you say it like that
You saying that shit to make me mad
Do you really mean it
Tell me what you mean
Woah oh, woah oh oh
Woah oh, woah oh oh
You saying that shit to make me mad
When you get it wrong we take it back

Do you mean it
Yeah
Woah
