

Nevermind

Jacob Lee

Keep me awake and perhaps we will find a place where we belong
All that we know is left in a world that we haven't explored
'Cause we don't wanna leave our sheets and grow old like we should Wondering where it would lead whilst feeling misunderstood

So wake up and realize how lucky you are
And breathe another breath
And feel us walk with you as you walk alone
Whoa-oh, oh-oh, but never mind
Never mind

I met a thief and it stole every part of me and never left
And every time it decides to arrive I let it in
And I know what it's like when your home
Is not a place where you can go

So wake up and realize how lucky you are
And breathe another breath
And feel us walk with you as you walk alone
Whoa-oh, oh-oh

But never mind me, I'm just telling you
There's a reason to hold on
Leave it to the breeze and you'll see what I mean
Hold on

I'm just telling you
There's a reason to hold on
Leave it to the breeze and you'll see what I mean
Hold on

So wake up and realize how lucky you are
And breathe another breath
And feel us walk with you as you walk alone
Whoa-oh, oh-oh, but never mind
Never mind, no no no, no no no, no no no, whoa-oh
Just hold on, whoa-oh, oh-oh, but never mind