

Slip

Jacob Lee

Maybe we, we fell apart for a reason
I have to let it go, before I make myself sick
And I feel the dark, in the brightest of seasons
And I feel the rain, when the sky isn't bleeding

And I need to know, if there was another man
Oh, who took your hand, and gave you everything that I can
And I need to know, if we can start anew
I'll fall fast asleep, and pretend I'm not dreaming bout' you

Maybe we, we fell in love for a reason
I have to hold you close, before I let you slip, away
And I feel the pain, though my heart isn't beating
And I searched myself today, and I found what was missing

And I need to know, if there was another man
Oh, who took your hand, and gave you everything that I can
And I need to know, if we can start anew
I'll fall fast asleep, and pretend I'm not dreaming bout' you

It keeps me awake, I can explain
I feel lonely lately when the birds sing your name
The clouds form your face, I know myself
But this sorrow won't leave me today

I need to know, if there was another soul
Who'd lay out their hand, and teach me to love again, no, no
And I need to know, if there was another heart
Oh, to place in my chest, and teach mine to beat again

And I need to know, if you're coming back for me
Whilst I wait patiently, you said you'd grow old with me
