

Suitcase

Jacob Lee

I know I'm never at home
I swear it's never my fault
You know I can't keep checking my phone
But I think of you every single day

Don't tell me I had all this wrong
And you're rising a girl alone
I'll be home in another two months
You know that I'm doing this for us

Take me away
I left my heart in your suitcase
Can't bring it home
Can't bring it home

Now I know you're never alone
You say it's never your fault
There are only work friends yeah, I know
But I don't think I can take one more day

I've been waiting here at home
And I don't think I can take one more day

Take me away
I left my heart in your suitcase
Can't bring it home
Can't bring it home

I don't know when we last touched
It's been more than six months
You don't know how much I need you

One day you might understand
I gave everything I had
You don't know how much I need you

Take me away
I left my heart in your suitcase
Can't bring it home
Can't bring it home

Take me away
I left my heart in your suitcase
Can't bring it home (You don't know)
Can't bring it home (You don't know how much I need you)
